Bobbin Notes.

(Cover) "Jack-in-the-Box:" Now available in bone and wood, the 'Jack' unscrews from the shank which can be plain or inscribed, (see price list for further details). Jingle-Bobbins: the fine loose rings are made on the bobbins, not added later. One to six jingles. 1st Lady Prime Minister Commemorative: Miniature lady in blue stands at the door of No.10. The railings, famous in the Votes for Women struggle, are there too. "Church Windows": Free-moving miniatures, or 'Babes' are carried inside the mother bobbin and can be seen through the 'windows'. "Spiral Bobbins:" Simple and elegant, in wood or bone. "Mrs. Bobbin": Like Mr. Bobbin (above) made from beautiful white holly, the eyes hands and mouths inlaid, their clothes delicately carved. (Above Left) Basic Bobbins: Polished and decorated, no two the same unless so requested, all drilled to receive spangles, which are not supplied. Usually about 30 woods in stock, but can't guarantee every specific choice. Basics in Exotic woods: Fine specials made from woods such as Ebony, Tulipwood, Voamboana etc. (see price list). Mother-in-Babe, pierced style: carved and pierced compartments enclose the 'Babes.' Leopards: The spots are inlays of richly coloured woods. "Beaded Leopards:" A variation. Each 'bead' inlaid with three colours. "Tigers:" Ebony with bone stripes or bone with ebony stripes. All Wood - Tigers: Take your pick; red and white stripes, brown and cream, or, tiger of tigers, black and yellow? Brass Wired: Brass wire is bound round the bone shank in shallow cut recesses. Sandwich Bobbins: Made from two slivers of wood with a different coloured 'filling.' Inscribed Bobbins: - Made to order for special events - weddings, birthdays, anniversaries, etc. "Church Window -coloured" A 'Super' version of the Church Window bobbins. Only in bone, with red and blue decorations to the galleries.
